HOME NEWS.

NEW-YORK CITY.

Professor Albert S. Bickmore gave a lecture in the American Museum of Natural History yesterday, on "Food Fishes from Fresh Waters." There was a large attendance, as usual.

The funeral of E. A. Hoffman, Jr., son of Dean Hoffman, of the General Theological Seminary, was held at Trinity Chapel, in Twenty-sixth-st., yesterday afternoon. Bishop Potter, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Dix and the Rev. Dr. Vibbert, conducted the services.

Water Register Riley's report for last week shows $27,227.16 collected for the use of Croton water.

Mayor's Marshal Engelhard issued 1,109 city licenses last week, and collected $2,147.75 in fees.

The heavy output of Louisiana sugar last year gave it a grocery reputation above some of the refinings of foreign sugar, and the new crop is again finding a place. The steamship Algiers brings 12,000 barrels, and next Wednesday's boat is expected to contain as much.

The preliminary bouts of the boxing championships of the Metropolitan Association of the Amateur Athletic Union will be held on Thursday night at the Metropolitan Opera House.

The Ladies' Schubert Quartet, of Boston, will be the attraction at the monthly entertainment of the Young Men's Institute, No. 222 Bowery, on Tuesday night.

In the suit of A. N. Loeb against the Dr. Jaeger Sanitary Woolen System Company, now pending before the Supreme Court in this city, an order was entered by Judge Ingraham on Monday, sustaining the demurrer of the Dr. Jaeger Company. This practically decides that no cause of action had been sufficiently shown by the plaintiff.

The Tribune yesterday received $5 from "Thanksgiving" for the sufferers from the famine in Russia.

The Alumni Association of Drew Theological Seminary will have its annual dinner at Clark's, in Twenty-third-st., to-morrow evening. Covers will be laid for seventy-five.

A course of Sunday-evening lectures is to be given in St. Bernard's Church, the first of which, "The Church in Her History," by the Right Rev. Dr. Robert Selon, rector of St. Joseph's Church, Jersey City, will be delivered to-night.

Standard Lodge of the Free Sons of Israel will have its annual reception at Terrace Garden on December 10.

A delay of ten minutes was caused on the Sixth-ave. elevated railway yesterday morning by the blowing-out of a cylinder-head on a locomotive as the train was passing Twenty-fourth-st. The train managed to reach the Twenty-third-st. station, where the passengers were transferred. The disabled train was pushed down to Rector-st. by the train following. No one was injured by the accident, but two women in the forward car fainted.

The annual meeting of the Society of the Church Mission to Deaf-Mutes will be held in St. Ann's Church for Deaf-Mutes to-morrow evening.

The first monthly festival of the choir of St. Bartholomew's Church this season will take place this afternoon at 4 o'clock. The choir of All Souls' Church will combine with the parish choir. "The Advent Hymn," Schumann, and "O Come, Let Us Worship," Mendelssohn, are to be sung. Mr. Warren will conduct, with Mr. Macfarlane at the organ.

The noted violinist, Muzesi Lajos, is to return to the Eden Music on December 2 with a selected orchestra of sixteen performers, among them being Muzesi Bela, a "cello player of reputation." De Kolta, who is said to be an excellent musician, will also appear. In conjunction with the waxworks, this entertainment will doubtless prove a drawing one.

The Mount Washington Collegiate Association will have its annual dinner at No. 1,122 Broadway on Thursday evening next. The committee in charge intends to make the dinner unusually attractive, and a large attendance of the former pupils is expected. Extra tickets may be obtained from M. T. F. Gouraud, the secretary and treasurer, No. 37 Great Jones-st. Addresses will be made by the Rev. William Lloyd, the Rev. Charles F. Deems, and others.

C. H. Schultz, a member of both the Produce and Maritime exchanges, died at his home, No. 62 West Fifty-third-st., on Friday. He was sixty-three years old, and a member of the committee in charge of the funeral of the late William Lloyd. The funeral will be at his home on Monday at 10 a. m.

There will be pretty women and handsome men at the annual reception of the J. J. Reynolds Association at Arlington Hall next Wednesday evening. The hall and supper-rooms will be prettily decorated with ferns and National emblems, and the members will do their best to make their guests comfortable.

A SCHOONER SUNK BY A BRIDGE ABUTMENT.
Fall River, Mass., Nov. 28.—Schooner Emma, of this port, struck an abutment of the Old Colony Railroad drawbridge while being towed up the river this morning, and sank. She is loaded with moulding sand for the Presbury Stove Foundry Company. She was dismantled and has a large hole in the starboard bow. Captain Wilkinson has entered suit against the Old Colony for damages, claiming that there were "lights at the draw."

BOUND OVER TO THE GRAND JURY FOR MURDER.
Springfield, Mass., Nov. 28.—The hearing of Wallace W. Holmes, charged with the murder of his wife, Nellie E. Holmes, was held in the Chicopee Police Court this morning before Judge Hitchcock. Holmes was bound over to the Grand Jury.

WINTER WEATHER EAST AND WEST.
St. Paul, Nov. 28.—Dispatches from fifty Minnesota points indicate that the temperature varies from zero at Duluth to 10 degrees below at Duluth, and 18 degrees below at Moorhead. A heavy damp wind is howling, and it will be much colder before morning. The great snow storms in Northwestern Minnesota and North Dakota the last week have forced threshers to suspend operations. The ferries at Duluth and Superior have frozen over, and it is believed navigation by the

ONE BOY ACCIDENTALLY KILLS ANOTHER.
Cantonville, Penn., Nov. 28 (Special).—James Gilmarlin, a boy of thirteen, was shot and killed at noon today by a revolver in the hands of William Kelly, another boy. Kelly was shooting at an apple tree, when Gilmarlin appeared in a doorway of a building back of the tree, and facing Kelly, was struck by the bullet.

A THIEF'S CONFESSION CONFIRMED.
Boston, Nov. 28.—Frank Kilbourne, who last Saturday surrendered himself, stating that he had broken into and robbed a postoffice in Connecticut in November, was today ordered into the custody of a deputy marshal, to be taken to Hartford. It has been learned that the postoffice at North Westchester, Conn., was broken into and robbed on November 5, the time stated by Kilbourne. He said today that his "pal" had gone to Mexico.

A DISPUTE EFFECTIVELY SETTLED.
Weatherford, Tex., Nov. 28.—A double killing occurred nine miles east of here yesterday. The victims are well-known residents of Parker County, A. S. Froman and William Rivers. They were neighbors, but for a long time a feud existed between them and their families. They met early yesterday morning on Rivers's farm. Rivers was accused of killing a dog belonging to Froman and in a quarrel both men began firing. Froman was shot and Rivers with a revolver. Froman was killed on the spot and Rivers lived only a few hours.
